Hunting regulation & code of conduct

1. Firearms and Ammunition

1.1 No person may handle, carry, load or discharge a firearm on any African Legacy Hunting Safaris property unless authorised to do so by the landowner, farm owner, or appointed Professional Hunter.

1.2 During a hunt, firearms must remain unloaded until the Professional Hunter has confirmed that the hunter is in a safe position and is authorised to take the shot.

1.3 A firearm may only be loaded immediately before taking a shot at an identified animal.

1.4 Once the shot has been taken, or when the opportunity has passed, the firearm must immediately be made safe and unloaded as instructed by the Professional Hunter.

1.5 All firearms and ammunition must be stored securely in the designated firearm safe when not being used for hunting.

1.6 Hunters must comply with all applicable South African firearm, hunting and conservation legislation, as well as the rules and instructions applicable to the particular property or concession.

2. Authority of the Professional Hunter

2.1 The Professional Hunter has overall authority regarding hunting safety and the conduct of the hunting party while in the field.

2.2 All hunters and accompanying non-hunters must follow the instructions of the Professional Hunter immediately and without argument where those instructions relate to safety, firearms, wildlife or hunting activities.

2.3 The Professional Hunter may terminate or suspend a person's participation in a hunt if that person's conduct creates a safety risk or interferes with the responsible conduct of the safari.

2.4 A person may be instructed to return to the lodge, camp, vehicle or designated accommodation area if the Professional Hunter considers this necessary.

3.2 Each hunter is responsible for the conduct and safety of any person accompanying them during their safari, including guests, observers and minors.

3.3 Parents, guardians and accompanying adults remain solely responsible for children and minors in their care.

3.4 African Legacy Hunting Safaris, the relevant landowners, property owners, concession holders, employees, guides and representatives accept no responsibility for injury, death, loss or damage arising from a person's failure to follow safety instructions, applicable laws or property rules, to the extent permitted by law.

4. Alcohol and Intoxicating Substances

4.1 No hunter may consume alcohol or use any intoxicating substance before or during a hunt.

4.2 No person who appears to be under the influence of alcohol or an intoxicating substance will be permitted to participate in hunting activities.

6. Taking the Shot

6.1 The hunter remains responsible for every shot fired.

6.2 No shot may be taken unless the hunter has positively identified the intended animal and has a safe and suitable shooting opportunity.

6.3 Hunters must take particular care to avoid shooting at, or causing damage to, vehicles, buildings, livestock, fences, equipment, vegetation or other property.

6.4 Any damage caused by a hunter through negligent, reckless or unauthorised shooting may be charged to the hunter.

7. Wounded Animals and Missed Shots

7.1 Every hunter has a responsibility to make a reasonable and ethical attempt to take the intended animal with a clean and effective shot.

7.2 If an animal is wounded, the Professional Hunter must be informed immediately. The hunter may not conceal or minimise a wounding.

7.3 The Professional Hunter will determine the appropriate course of action to locate, recover or dispatch a wounded animal.

7.4 Where a wounded animal must be dispatched by the Professional Hunter or another authorised person, the applicable trophy fee will remain payable by the hunter.

7.5 Any missed shot will be recorded by the Professional Hunter and dealt with according to the applicable safari quotation, price list or hunting agreement.

7.6 The Professional Hunter's assessment of whether an animal was wounded, missed or requires follow-up tracking will be recorded as part of the hunt documentation.

8. Reporting of Wounded Animals

8.1 A hunter must immediately disclose any suspected wounding, even where there is no visible blood or obvious sign of injury.

8.2 No hunter, guide, tracker or other member of the hunting party may deliberately conceal a wounded animal or missed shot.

8.3 No payment, gratuity or other benefit may be offered to a guide, tracker or employee in exchange for concealing a wounded animal, missed shot or other hunting incident.

8.4 Any attempt to conceal such an incident may result in the hunter being held responsible for the applicable trophy fee, recovery costs, damage and any other losses incurred by African Legacy Hunting Safaris, subject to the terms of the hunting agreement.

9. Trophies and Animals Taken

9.1 Hunters must understand the applicable trophy fees, hunting fees and other charges before commencing their safari.

9.2 All fees relating to animals taken, wounded animals, additional services, damage or other agreed charges must be settled before the hunter departs from the property, unless alternative payment arrangements have been agreed in writing.

9.3 The Professional Hunter may determine that an animal should be taken down where, in their professional judgement, the animal presents an immediate threat to human safety or is suffering as a result of a previous wound.

9.4 Where an animal is taken down for these reasons, the applicable trophy fee will be payable where provided for in the agreed hunting terms.

10. Fires and Property Rules

10.1 Fires may only be made in areas specifically designated for that purpose.

10.2 No person may light or maintain a fire in an unauthorised area.
